AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The employees of state judges are front-line persons who routinely interact with litigants experiencing crises, including persons with extensive criminal histories and numerous mentally unstable and potentially dangerous persons. This is true for both criminal and civil courts.

Ill-intentioned, disgruntled litigants easily may access the home address information of those employees who own property in Texas through public property appraisal records. S.B. 510 would add the employees of state judges to the list of persons allowed to remove their residence address from tax appraisal rolls. This change would allow them to protect their safety and reduce the possibility of disgruntled litigants being able to find out easily where they and their families live. (Original Author's / Sponsor's Statement of Intent)

S.B. 510 amends current law relating to the confidentiality of certain home address information in ad valorem tax appraisal records.
