AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

S.B. 632 seeks to dissolve the Statewide Procurement Advisory Council (SPAC), a statutorily required advisory council at the office of the Texas comptroller of public accounts (comptroller) that has outlived its utility. In 2007, the legislature transferred the authority for overseeing state purchasing from the former Texas Building and Procurement Commission (TBPC) to the comptroller. The legislation also created SPAC, an advisory committee to oversee the state's purchasing duties. While the SPAC committee expired in 2011, the statute related to its meeting requirements has not. This statute requires that contracts valued at $100,000 or more must be proposed and awarded during an open meeting chaired by the deputy comptroller. Without an active advisory council, these statutorily required meetings have increased the cycle time of procurements and provided little value in the areas of transparency and guidance.

Due to the steps taken by the legislature to increase transparency within the state's procurement process in recent years, the elimination of SPAC will not impact accessibility to state purchasing records and contracts. These steps include requiring agencies to post solicitations on the Electronic State Business Daily as well as report all contracts exceeding specific thresholds to the Legislative Budget Board contract database, all of which is accessible to the public. Repealing SPAC would remove a level of bureaucracy that no longer serves its original purpose, and therefore, increase government efficiency and cost-savings for statewide procurement.

As proposed, S.B. 632 amends current law relating to the repeal of certain state procurement advisory and approval procedures.
