H.B. No. 712

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to a single common course numbering system for public institutions of higher education in this state.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 61.822(b), Education Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Each institution of higher education shall adopt a core curriculum of not ~~[no]~~ less than 42 semester credit hours, including specific courses comprising the curriculum. The core curriculum shall be consistent with the single common course numbering system approved by the board under Section 61.832(a) and with the statement, recommendations, and rules issued by the board. An institution may have a core curriculum of other than 42 semester credit hours only if approved by the board.

SECTION 2. Section 61.830, Education Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 61.830. PUBLICATION OF GUIDELINES ADDRESSING TRANSFER PRACTICES. In its course catalogs and on its website, each institution of higher education shall publish guidelines addressing the practices of the institution regarding the transfer of course credit. In the guidelines, the institution must use ~~[identify a course by using]~~ the single common course numbering system as required by Section 61.832 to identify each of its offered courses for which a common number designation and course

1 description are included by the board in that system [~~approved by~~
2 ~~the board~~].

3 SECTION 3. Section 61.832, Education Code, is amended to 4 read as follows:

5 Sec. 61.832. COMMON COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM. (a) The board
6 shall approve a single common course numbering system for 7 lower-division courses to facilitate the transfer of those courses
8 among institutions of higher education by promoting consistency in 9 course designation and identification.

10 (b) The board shall solicit input from institutions of 11 higher education regarding the development of the single common
12 course numbering system.

13 (c) Each institution of higher education shall:

14 (1) use the approved common course numbering system in 15 the institution's guidelines regarding the transfer of course
16 credit for each course for which a common number designation and 17 course description are included by the board in that system; and

18 (2) include the applicable course numbers from the 19 approved common course numbering system in its course catalogs and 20 other course listings.

21 (d) The board may approve only a common course numbering
22 system already in common use in this state by one or more
23 institutions of higher education.

24 (e) [~~e~~] The board shall cooperate with institutions of 25 higher education in any additional development or alteration of the 26 common course numbering system approved under Subsection (a),
27 including the taxonomy to be used, and in the development of rules

1 for the administration and applicability of the system.

2 (f) Each institution of higher education must certify
3 annually to the board the accuracy of the institution's
4 identification, in its course catalogs and other course listings,
5 of each course offered by the institution for which a common number
6 designation and course description are included by the board in the 7 common course numbering system. As part of the certification
8 required by this subsection, the institution shall specify each of 9 its offered courses for which a common number designation and 10 course description are included in that system and each of its 11 offered courses for which a common number designation and course
12 description are not included in that system. The institution also 13 shall include with its certification a current, publicly accessible
14 website address at which the institution publishes its guidelines
15 regarding the transfer of course credit.

16 (g) The board may, based on the board's review of the 17 information certified under Subsection (f), recommend corrective
18 action to an institution's governing board if the institution fails
19 to comply with the requirements of this section. In its next 20 legislative appropriations request made to the legislature, the 21 board shall identify each institution that fails to comply with the 22 board's recommended corrective action.

23 (h) Not later than June 1, 2018, the board shall:

24 (1) approve a single common course numbering system as 25 required by Subsection (a); and

26 (2) establish a timetable that requires institutions
27 of higher education to phase in the inclusion of the applicable

1 course numbers from the approved common course numbering system in
2 their individual guidelines regarding the transfer of course credit
3 and in their individual course numbering systems as required by 4 this section so that each institution fully complies with this
5 section for each course that is offered during the 2022-2023
6 academic year or a subsequent academic year and for which a common
7 number designation and course description are included by the board
8 in that system.

9 (h-1) Subsection (h) and this subsection expire January 1,
10 2024.

11 ~~[(d) An institution of higher education shall include in its~~ 12 ~~course listings the applicable course numbers from the common~~
13 ~~course numbering system approved by the board under this section.~~
14 ~~For good cause, the board may grant to an institution of higher~~
15 ~~education an exemption from the requirements of this subsection.]~~

16 SECTION 4. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this
17 section, the change in law made by this Act applies beginning with 18 the 2018-2019 academic year.

19 (b) The change in law made by this Act in adding Sections
20 61.832(f) and (g), Education Code, applies beginning with the 21 2022-2023 academic year.

22 SECTION 5. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives
23 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 24 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 25 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 26 Act takes effect September 1, 2017.
