H.B. No. 1220

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to spoliation of evidence held for use in a criminal proceeding.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Chapter 38, Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended by adding Article 38.495 to read as follows:

Art. 38.495. SPOILIATION OF EVIDENCE. (a) Except as permitted under other law, the state shall preserve evidence in the possession, custody, or control of the state and may not permit the destruction, alteration, or loss of that evidence.

(b) Evidence and testimony relating to an allegation that the state, by act or omission, caused the destruction, alteration, or loss of evidence held for use in a criminal proceeding are admissible and may be used by the defendant to make a showing of spoliation of evidence under this article, subject to Subsection (c).

(c) In determining the admissibility of evidence or testimony relating to an allegation described by Subsection (b), the court shall determine, out of the presence of the jury and by a preponderance of the evidence, whether spoliation of evidence occurred in violation of Subsection (a). If practicable, the court shall make the determination under this subsection before trial using the procedures under Article 28.01 of this code and Rule 104, Texas Rules of Evidence.

1 (d) The party alleging spoliation of evidence in violation
2 of Subsection (a) is not required to show that:

3 (1) the actor's sole intent was to wrongfully cause the 4 destruction, alteration, or loss of the evidence; or

5 (2) the actions of the actor constituted a criminal
6 offense.

7 (e) A conviction for an offense under Section 37.09, Penal
8 Code, creates a presumption of spoliation of evidence under this 9 article.

10 (f) If it is shown during a proceeding under Subsection (c)
11 that the violation of Subsection (a) was intentional, knowing,
12 reckless, or negligent, at trial the court shall instruct the jury
13 to presume that the destroyed, altered, or lost evidence would have 14 been favorable to the defendant and unfavorable to the state.

15 (g) If it is shown during a proceeding under Subsection (c)
16 that the violation of Subsection (a) was intentional, the court may 17 impose additional sanctions on the state or dismiss any criminal
18 charges with prejudice.

19 SECTION 2. The change in law made by this Act applies to a
20 criminal proceeding that commences on or after the effective date
21 of this Act. A criminal proceeding that commences before the 22 effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect when the 23 proceeding commenced, and the former law is continued in effect for 24 that purpose.

25 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2017.
