H.R. No. 145

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, A number of outstanding Texas organizations are 2 working together to raise awareness of the importance of 3 out-of-school initiatives for students, and it is indeed fitting to 4 acknowledge their endeavors as they gather in Austin on January 23,
5 2017, for Expanded Learning Opportunities (ELO) Day at the State
6 Capitol; and

7 WHEREAS, The Texas Partnership for Out of School Time is a
8 statewide network of nonprofit, public, and private sector groups 9 dedicated to providing K-12 students with a wide selection of 10 before-school, after-school, and summer-break activities; its 11 sweeping list of providers ranges from such nationally recognized 12 organizations as the YMCA, Boys & Girls Clubs, and 4-H to local 13 service and faith-based organizations and municipal programs; and

14 WHEREAS, ELO initiatives give youths, many of whom are 15 otherwise unsupervised after school hours, a safe and supportive
16 environment where they can engage in science, technology,
17 engineering, and math (STEM) education, performing and fine arts,
18 health and nutrition programs, physical activity, and character 19 building; participation in these activities has been shown to 20 improve grades, test scores, attendance, behavior, and grade 21 promotion; and

22 WHEREAS, Expanded Learning Opportunities programs have 23 helped countless young Texans to aspire to the highest level of 24 personal development and have enhanced the quality of life in

1 communities across the state, and those who devote their time and 2 energy to these goals are deserving of our deep respect and 3 appreciation; now, therefore, be it

4 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 85th Texas
5 Legislature hereby recognize January 23, 2017, as Expanded Learning 6 Opportunities (ELO) Day at the State Capitol and extend to all those 7 participating sincere best wishes for the future.
