

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, For nearly six decades, the National Aeronautics and 2 Space Administration has inspired our nation and the world with its 3 outstanding record of intrepid space exploration and scientific 4 discovery; and

5 WHEREAS, NASA's innumerable engineering advances have 6 greatly benefited our nation's security, safety, and 7 communications systems, and innovations pioneered by NASA
8 scientists and engineers have led to such improvements in health
9 care technology as the MRI and the CAT scan, the fetal heart 10 monitor, and the programmable cardiac pacemaker; and

11 WHEREAS, The agency's strong presence in the Lone Star State
12 has long been a source of pride for all Texans; the Johnson Space
13 Center in Houston is a global leader in human spaceflight, serving 14 as the training center for America's corps of astronauts; the 15 center is continuing that legacy by acting as the lead center for 16 the development of the nation's latest spacecraft, the Orion
17 Multi-Purpose Crew Vehicle; this effort includes working with 18 private partners and conducting advanced research that will 19 strengthen the future of space exploration; and

20 WHEREAS, The Johnson Space Center also plays a vital role in 21 the Texas economy, employing approximately 3,200 civil servants and 22 more than 15,000 civilian contractors and awarding billions of 23 dollars in contracts every year; in addition, NASA's Space Alliance 24 Technology Outreach Program benefits small businesses across the

1 state, and through education programs such as Texas Aerospace
2 Scholars, NASA is nurturing and inspiring a new generation of 3 scientists, engineers, and explorers; and

4 WHEREAS, NASA continues to drive further innovation in the 5 aerospace and high-tech industries, and its long-standing record of 6 achievement in the development of technologies that simultaneously
7 reach for the stars and better our lives here on Earth is truly
8 deserving of special recognition; now, therefore, be it

9 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 85th Texas
10 Legislature hereby recognize March 7, 2017, as Space Day at the 11 State Capitol and honor the National Aeronautics and Space
12 Administration for its immeasurable contributions to this state and 13 nation.
