

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Residents of Austin are mourning the loss of former 2 Travis County commissioner Richard A. Moya, who died on February 3 16, 2017, at the age of 84; and

4 WHEREAS, Born in Austin on August 14, 1932, Richard Moya was 5 the son of Pete and Bertha Moya; he grew up in the barrio on the 6 city's East Side, and he developed a strong sense of social justice 7 at an early age, when his mother stood her ground against 8 segregation in the school district to ensure he would attend his 9 neighborhood school, Metz Elementary; as a student at Austin High
10 School, he joined with friends to create an alternative newspaper
11 that covered his Mexican American classmates, and when the school 12 banned the Blah, Blah, and Blah, he distributed copies at the 13 drugstore across the street; later, he became national president of 14 the Junior LULAC, and he was a charter member of the Mexican 15 American Democrats of Texas and the State Tejano Democrats; and

16 WHEREAS, Mr. Moya worked in the printing business before
17 enlisting in the United States Army during the Korean War;
18 subsequently, he was hired as a chief investigator with Travis
19 County Legal Aid, where his bilingual skill and community contacts 20 made him a valued staff member; and

21 WHEREAS, In 1971, Mr. Moya became Travis County's first 22 Hispanic elected official, following his election as county 23 commissioner; over the course of four terms in office, he 24 vigorously supported diversity in hiring and worked tirelessly to

1 improve social services; he played a key role in the establishment 2 of an abuse unit in the district attorney's office, in the 3 development of the StarFlight emergency services program, and in 4 the creation of a rural transportation program, among other 5 initiatives; although he sometimes confronted antagonism and 6 bigotry, he surmounted obstacles with his marvelous sense of humor;
7 he remained very accessible to the community throughout his career,
8 and the county eventually named Richard Moya Park in his honor; and

9 WHEREAS, After concluding his tenure, Mr. Moya served the 10 state as director of field operations for the agriculture 11 commissioner; he subsequently joined the administration of 12 Governor Ann Richards as a deputy chief of staff, a position that 13 entailed a wide range of responsibilities; moreover, he helped her 14 achieve her goal of diversifying state boards and commissions; and

15 WHEREAS, Mr. Moya's dedication to public service was exceeded
16 only by his devotion to his family; he shared a rewarding marriage 17 of almost 65 years with his wife, Gertrude "Gertie" Moya, and he was 18 the proud father of two children, Danny Moya and Lori Moya; in his 19 later years, he knew the joy of welcoming into his family three 20 grandchildren, Misty Moya Welch, Jeffrey Daniel Delgado, and Teresa
21 Denise Delgado, and four great-grandchildren, Nathan 22 Bailey-Delgado, Lucas Delgado, Jacob Moya, and Danika Moya; and

23 WHEREAS, A groundbreaking public servant, Richard Moya
24 effected positive change and mentored hundreds of community
25 leaders, and although he will be deeply missed, his contributions 26 will be remembered and admired for years to come; now, therefore, be 27 it
