

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Citizens from across the Lone Star State are 2 mourning the loss of former Supreme Court of Texas Chief Justice 3 Jack Pope Jr., who passed away on February 25, 2017, at the age of 4 103; and

5 WHEREAS, Andrew Jackson "Jack" Pope Jr. was born in Abilene
6 on April 18, 1913, to Dr. Andrew Jackson Pope Sr., a pioneer
7 physician, and Ruth Adelia Taylor; after graduating from Abilene
8 High School in 1930, he attended Abilene Christian University, 9 where he served as president of the student association, earned
10 letters in debate and tennis, and graduated with a bachelor of arts 11 degree in 1934; he continued his education at The University of 12 Texas at Austin, serving as student editor of the Texas Law Review 13 and receiving a bachelor of laws degree in 1937; and

14 WHEREAS, In June of that year, Mr. Pope was licensed to 15 practice law in Texas, and he moved to Corpus Christi to join the 16 firm of his uncle, former state representative Walter E. Pope; he 17 soon established himself as a capable attorney whose practice dealt 18 with criminal and civil matters, including creditors' rights, oil 19 and gas issues, real estate transactions, and personal injury and 20 family law; at the encouragement of his uncle, he also took 21 appellate cases, which he briefed and argued before the Court of 22 Civil Appeals in San Antonio and the Supreme Court of Texas; and

23 WHEREAS, On June 11, 1938, Jack Pope married Allene Nichols, 24 a fellow UT graduate; in the course of a loving partnership that

1 lasted 66 years, they became the proud parents of two sons, 2 A. J. and Allen; and

3 WHEREAS, Following the outbreak of World War II, this 4 patriotic Texan enlisted in the U.S. Navy, even though as a father, 5 he was exempt from the draft; he served his country as a 6 cryptologist in Washington, D.C., and as part of the legal team at 7 the Naval Air Training Station in Corpus Christi; and

8 WHEREAS, Honorably discharged in 1946, Jack Pope established
9 a private law practice with O. E. Cannon and Sam Pittman; soon
10 after, he was appointed to fill the unexpired term of 94th District 11 Court Judge Allen Wood; the youngest district judge in Texas at the 12 time, he began speaking at legal institutes and bar association
13 meetings and expressing his thoughts on the jury system, the best
14 administration of court trials, and the proper methods to present 15 and exclude evidence; and

16 WHEREAS, Judge Pope went on to serve on the Fourth Court of 17 Civil Appeals in San Antonio from 1950 to 1964; while a member of 18 that bench, he helped reshape Texas water law by analyzing the 19 question of riparian rights of irrigation in Spanish and Mexican 20 land grants; his seminal opinion in the matter was subsequently 21 adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas; years later, author James A.
22 Michener sought Mr. Pope's expertise on the historical role of 23 water when researching his acclaimed 1985 novel, Texas; and

24 WHEREAS, In 1964, Jack Pope was elected to the Supreme Court
25 of Texas, and as an associate justice, he led efforts to enact 26 judicial and procedural reforms and helped draft significant 27 rulings on property rights; he was appointed by Governor William

1 P. Clements as the 23rd chief justice in 1982 and elected to that 2 position two years later; and

3 WHEREAS, Known for the clarity of his thought and writing,
4 Chief Justice Pope served as a Texas judge for 38 years, the longest 5 judicial tenure in the state's history; he wrote more than 1,000 6 opinions and over 70 law-related articles, a staggering amount that 7 represents the largest contribution by a single individual to the 8 jurisprudence of the Lone Star State; and

9 WHEREAS, This remarkable public servant, who began his career 10 before the advent of formal judicial training, was an advocate for 11 the professional education of Texas judges; his efforts culminated 12 in the establishment of compulsory judicial education and the 13 adoption of the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct by the Supreme Court 14 of Texas; and

15 WHEREAS, Committed to ensuring justice for all Texans, Jack
16 Pope was instrumental in establishing the first permanent funding 17 source for legal aid in this state; rather than relying on tax
18 revenue, his plan uses interest paid out on attorneys' client-trust 19 accounts, and the money generated by this program currently funds 20 legal services for more than 100,000 families in such matters as 21 wrongful foreclosure, domestic violence, and cases where veterans 22 have not received their earned benefits; in 2013, in tribute to his 23 trailblazing efforts in behalf of legal aid, the Texas Legislature
24 passed the Chief Justice Jack Pope Act, which increased from $10
25 million to $50 million the amount that the Office of the Attorney 26 General can transfer to the Supreme Court of Texas to support the 27 provision of basic legal services for those who cannot otherwise

1 afford them; and

2 WHEREAS, In retirement, Chief Justice Pope donated most of 3 his papers to Abilene Christian University and The University of 4 Texas School of Law; in addition, he made a special contribution, a 5 portion of his personal law library, to the University of North
6 Texas at Dallas College of Law; this generous gift included a
7 complete set of signed South Western Reporters, bound compilations
8 of reported judicial decisions in the southwestern United States;
9 and

10 WHEREAS, Chief Justice Pope also played a crucial role in 11 establishing the State Law Library as a separate agency in 1971 and 12 served as a member emeritus of the Friends of the State Law Library
13 Board of Directors; the library later recognized him and another 14 former chief justice, the late Joe Greenhill, with the creation of 15 the Greenhill-Pope Law Book Fund; he further contributed to his 16 profession as a charter member of the Texas Center for Legal Ethics
17 and as a cofounder of the Texas Supreme Court Historical Society, 18 which published a collection of his writings under the title Common 19 Law Judge; and

20 WHEREAS, Chief Justice Pope credited Abilene Christian 21 University with his many achievements, and in return for the 22 invaluable lessons he learned there, he became one of the school's 23 staunchest supporters, joining the board of trustees in 1954 and 24 serving on the senior board for many years; he also chaired the 25 board for the Christian Chronicle newspaper; in appreciation for 26 his immeasurable service to the university, Abilene Christian 27 conferred on him an Outstanding Alumnus of the Year award and a

1 Change the World Award, and since 1989, through the Jack Pope
2 Fellows Program, it has bestowed scholarships on outstanding 3 students intending to pursue a career in public service; and

4 WHEREAS, Among countless other accolades, Chief Justice Pope
5 received four honorary degrees, the inaugural Judicial Lifetime
6 Achievement Award from the State Bar of Texas, the inaugural Chief 7 Justice Jack Pope Professionalism Award from the Texas Center for 8 Legal Ethics, and an Outstanding Alumnus Award from The University
9 of Texas School of Law; and

10 WHEREAS, In his final years, Chief Justice Pope remained 11 deeply grateful for his friends, neighbors, members of his church, 12 University Avenue Church of Christ, his longtime secretary, the 13 late Peggy Littlefield, and Lauren Barrett and the team of 14 caregivers whom he affectionately referred to as the "Little United 15 Nations" and about whom he wrote a book, describing them and their 16 ideas on caring for the elderly; and

17 WHEREAS, A true Texas statesman, Jack Pope was motivated not 18 by love of self but rather by an abiding concern for others, and 19 those he leaves behind will continue to find inspiration in his 20 accomplishments for many years to come; now, therefore, be it

21 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 85th Texas
22 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of Chief Justice Jack 23 Pope and extend sincere condolences to the members of his family: to 24 his sons, A. J. Pope III and his wife, Carla, and Allen Pope and his 25 wife, Karen; to his grandchildren, Drew Pope, Ryan Pope and his 26 wife, Erin, and Billie Pope Locke and her husband, Jeff; to his 27 great-grandchildren, Dylan and Peyton Locke and Carinn and Caitlin

1 Pope; and to his other relatives and many friends; and, be it
2 further

3 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 4 prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of 5 Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of the 6 Honorable Jack Pope Jr.
