S.B. No. 919

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

1 AN ACT
2 relating to the authority of an advanced practice registered nurse
3 or physician assistant to sign a death certificate in limited
4 situations.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

6 SECTION 1. Section 193.005, Health and Safety Code, is 7 amended by amending Subsections (a), (b), and (c) and adding 8 Subsection (a-1) to read as follows:

9 (a) A person required to file a death certificate or fetal
10 death certificate shall obtain the required medical certification 11 from the decedent's [an] attending physician, or, subject to 12 Subsection (a-1), a physician assistant or advanced practice
13 registered nurse of the decedent, if the death occurred under 14 [medical attendance for] the care of the person in connection with 15 the [and] treatment of the condition or disease process that 16 contributed to the death.

17 (a-1) A physician assistant or advanced practice registered
18 nurse may only complete the medical certification for a death
19 certificate or fetal death certificate under this section if:

20 (1) a patient who has executed a written certification
21 of a terminal illness has elected to receive hospice care and is 22 receiving hospice services, as defined under Chapter 142, from a 23 qualified hospice provider; or

24 (2) a patient is receiving palliative care.

1 (b) The attending physician, physician assistant, or 2 advanced practice registered nurse shall complete the medical 3 certification not later than five days after receiving the death
4 certificate.

5 (c) An associate physician, the chief medical officer of the 6 institution where the death occurred, or the physician who 7 performed an autopsy on the decedent may complete the medical 8 certification if:

9 (1) the attending physician, the physician assistant,
10 and the advanced practice registered nurse described by Subsection
11 (a) are ~~is~~ unavailable;

12 (2) the attending physician, the physician assistant,
13 or the advanced practice registered nurse described by Subsection 14 (a) approves; and

15 (3) the person completing the medical certification
16 has access to the medical history of the case and the death is due to 17 natural causes.

18 SECTION 2. Section 671.001(d), Health and Safety Code, is 19 amended to read as follows:

20 (d) A registered nurse, including an advanced practice
21 registered nurse, or physician assistant may determine and 22 pronounce a person dead in situations other than those described by 23 Subsection (b) if permitted by written policies of a licensed 24 health care facility, institution, or entity providing services to 25 that person. Those policies must include physician assistants who 26 are credentialed or otherwise permitted to practice at the 27 facility, institution, or entity. If the facility, institution, or

1 entity has an organized nursing staff and an organized medical 2 staff or medical consultant, the nursing staff and medical staff or 3 consultant shall jointly develop and approve those policies. The 4 executive commissioner of the Health and Human Services Commission
5 shall adopt rules to govern policies for facilities, institutions,
6 or entities that do not have organized nursing staffs and organized 7 medical staffs or medical consultants.

8 SECTION 3. Section 671.002(a), Health and Safety Code, is 9 amended to read as follows:

10 (a) A physician who determines death in accordance with 11 Section 671.001(b) or a registered nurse, including an advanced 12 practice registered nurse, or physician assistant who determines 13 death in accordance with Section 671.001(d) is not liable for civil 14 damages or subject to criminal prosecution for the physician's,
15 registered nurse's, or physician assistant's actions or the actions
16 of others based on the determination of death.

17 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 18 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 19 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 20 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 21 Act takes effect September 1, 2017.
