LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 23, 2017

TO: Honorable Charles Schwertner, Chair, Senate Committee on Health & Human Services

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB7 by Wu (Relating to child protective services suits, motions, and services by the Department of Family and Protective Services.), Committee Report 2nd House, Substituted

Estimated Two-year Net Impact to General Revenue Related Funds for HB7, Committee Report 2nd House, Substituted: a negative impact of ($2,035,157) through the biennium ending August 31, 2019.

The bill would make no appropriation but could provide the legal basis for an appropriation of funds to implement the provisions of the bill.

Certain provisions of the bill would only take effect if the Eighty-fifth Legislature appropriates money specifically for the purpose of implementing those provisions; otherwise, the provisions would not take effect.

General Revenue-Related Funds, Five-Year Impact:

| Fiscal Year | Probable Net Positive/(Negative) Impact to General Revenue Related Funds | | |
|-------------|---|--|--|
| 2018 | ($1,055,616) | | |
| 2019 | ($979,541) | | |
| 2020 | ($979,541) | | |
| 2021 | ($979,541) | | |
| 2022 | ($979,541) | | |

All Funds, Five-Year Impact:

| Fiscal Year | Probable Savings/(Cost) from General Revenue Fund 1 | Probable Savings/(Cost) from GR Match For Medicaid 758 | Probable Savings/(Cost) from Federal Funds 555 | Change in Number of State Employees from FY 2017 |

| 2022 | ($968,657) | ($10,884) | ($108,838) | 10.2 |

Fiscal Analysis

The bill would amend the Family Code, Government Code, Health and Safety Code, Human Resources Code, and Penal Code relating to child protective services suits, motions, and services by the Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS).

The bill would require DFPS, upon request, to provide certain information to a parent's attorney or child's attorney ad litem before the full adversary hearing.

The bill would amend a provision in the Health and Safety Code to limit DFPS's ability to admit a minor to an inpatient mental health facility. With this bill, DFPS would be required to go through an application for court-ordered mental health services, emergency detention, or an order for protective custody or have a physician state the minor is a person with a mental illness or serious emotional disorder and one who presents a risk of serious harm to self or others if not immediately restrained or hospitalized. The bill would require DFPS to periodically review the need for continued inpatient treatment of the minor and, if inpatient treatment is no longer needed, DFPS would be required to place the child in the least restrictive environment, as appropriate.

The bill would amend a provision in the Penal Code to apply violations of certain court orders (created elsewhere in the bill) to child abuse or neglect cases, creating an offense.

Certain provisions of the bill would only take effect if the Eighty-fifth Legislature appropriates money specifically for the purpose of implementing those provisions: the provisions affected by this limitation include Subchapter F, Chapter 261, Family Code (Protective Order in Certain Cases of Abuse or Neglect), Section 262.206, Family Code (Ex Parte Hearings Prohibited), Section 572.001, Health and Safety Code (admission to inpatient mental health facility), Section 25.07, Penal Code (violation of certain orders relating to child abuse or neglect). This estimate does not identify costs with all of those provisions.

Except as otherwise provided, the bill would take effect on September 1, 2017. The bill stipulates how and when the provisions of the bill are to be applied and lists under which circumstances former law is continued in effect.

Methodology

The bill is estimated to result in a cost of $1,172,907, in All Funds, in fiscal year 2018, and a cost of $1,088,379, in All Funds, in fiscal year 2019.

According to DFPS and HHSC, all of the duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill related to coordinating with TJJD for services to multi-system youth, developing recommendations related to jury selection methods, permitting guardians ad litem to interview educators and child welfare service providers, filing protective orders jointly with a parent, relative or caregiver of the child, postponing the adversary hearing to allow a parent to work with an attorney, and requiring MCOs in STAR Health ensure continuity of care for a child whose substitute care placement has changed could be accomplished by utilizing existing agency resources.

According to DFPS, the requirement to provide certain information that will be introduced as evidence to the attorney or attorneys representing a parent or a child prior to a full adversary hearing, three additional investigative caseworkers would be necessary to attach evidence to petitions. That would result in a cost of $323,552, in All Funds, in fiscal year 2018 for salary, benefits, and related expenses and $298,568, in All Funds, in each fiscal year thereafter. DFPS estimates each removal has an average of 10 photos at $0.39 cents per photo, resulting in a cost of $74,408 in All Funds per fiscal year. DFPS estimates each removal has one audio recording at a cost of $.20 per recording, resulting in a cost of $3,816 in All Funds per fiscal year.

DFPS assumes about 10 percent of total inpatient mental health admissions, approximately 450 per year. According to the agency, this would require an additional 16 hours of caseworker time to obtain the needed certifications, participate in court hearings, and transport the minor to the additional appointments for examination. To accomplish this requirement, the agency reports an additional 4.5 conservatorship (CVS) workers plus ratio driven staff will be needed. This analysis assumes that an additional 7.15 FTE would be needed to implement this provision. This would result in a cost of approximately $771,131, in All Funds, in fiscal year 2018 for salary, benefits, and related expenses and $711,587, in All Funds, in each fiscal year thereafter.

The Office of Court Administration (OCA) does not anticipate a significant fiscal impact to the state court system related to the creation of a new criminal offense. OCA also does not anticipate a significant increase in the caseload or duties of the courts.

Technology

No significant technology-related costs reported by DFPS.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
