

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 2017

TO: Honorable Byron Cook, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB330 by González, Mary (Relating to the capacity of certain minors to consent to examination or medical treatment related to contraception.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Family Code section 32.003(a) to allow a minor who is 15 years of age or older, unmarried, and the mother of a child, to consent to examination or medical treatment related to contraception, other than abortion or emergency contraception. The bill would take effect September 1, 2017.

Based on LBB's analysis of the Health and Human Services Commission, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
