

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 14, 2017

TO: Honorable Dan Huberty, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB413 by Bernal (Relating to increased flexibility in the use of the Instructional Materials Allotment), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Education Code to allow school districts and open-enrollment charter schools to use instructional materials allotment (IMA) funds to pay the salary of any employee who is directly involved in student learning or in addressing the social-emotional health of students, and to pay for the training of educational personnel involved in student learning.

Local Government Impact

School districts, open-enrollment charter schools, and other educational entities that receive an IMA, in accordance with Section 31.0211, Education Code, may chose to allocate their IMA funds differently as a result of the provisions of the bill.
