FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB442 by Martinez, "Mando" (Relating to the online publication of home addresses of certain occupational license holders.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would prohibit the Health and Human Services Commission and two of its administratively attached regulatory boards, the Texas State Board of Social Worker Examiners, and the Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors, from publishing the addresses of certain licensed individuals in a roster published by each entity, except at the request of the licensed individual. The bill would take effect September 1, 2017. The Health and Human Services Commission indicates that any costs associated with the bill could be absorbed within the agency's existing resources.
