

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 23, 2017

TO: Honorable Joe Straus, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB478 by Israel (Relating to civil liability for removing certain individuals from a motor vehicle.), As Passed 2nd House

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Civil Practices and Remedies Code to provide immunity from civil liability to any person that enters a motor vehicle under circumstances defined in the bill for the purpose of removing an unattended vulnerable individual from that vehicle. Based on the analysis of the Office of Court Administration and the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
