Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 15, 2017

TO: Honorable James White, Chair, House Committee on Corrections

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB664 by Canales (Relating to the release on bail of a defendant arrested following a violation of a condition of community supervision.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure to allow any judge or magistrate to order the release of a criminal defendant after an arrest on a violation of a condition of community supervision. Under current law, only the judge or magistrate who authorized the arrest may authorize the defendant's release. Based on the analysis of the Office of Court Administration, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
