

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 2017

TO: Honorable James White, Chair, House Committee on Corrections

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1041 by González, Mary (Relating to the review of privately operated residential facilities for persons released on parole or to mandatory supervision.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) to review certain instances when an offender absconded from a private facility operated under contract with TDCJ and to analyze certain factors that may have contributed to the escape. TDCJ shall report recommendations by December 1, 2018. According to TDCJ, no significant fiscal impact is anticipated to comply with the provisions of the bill. The bill would take effect September 1, 2017 and expire June 1, 2019.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
