

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 18, 2017

TO: Honorable Dan Huberty, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1057 by Thompson, Senfronia (Relating to indicators of achievement under the public school accountability system.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill's provisions would add four indicators to Domain IV for evaluating the performance of high school campuses and districts that include high school campuses. The new indicators would be: (1) the percentage of students who have completed an international baccalaureate course, (2) the percentage of students who have received credit by examination, (3) the percentage of students who have been promoted to higher grade levels than the grade levels to which the students would ordinarily be assigned, and (4) the percentage of students who have earned a diploma after not more than three years of high school attendance. Additionally, the bill would add one indicator to Domain IV for evaluating the performance of middle and junior high school campuses.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2017, or immediately if passed with the necessary voting margins, and would apply beginning with school year 2017-18.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
