

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 28, 2017

TO: Honorable Dennis Bonnen, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1449 by Simmons (Relating to prohibiting local governments from imposing certain fees on new construction.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

This bill would amend the Local Government Code to prohibit a political subdivision from imposing, directly or indirectly, a fee or other charge on new construction for the purposes of offsetting the cost or rent of any unit of residential housing. Establishes that fees for granting an exemption or waiver to zoning-related height restrictions are not covered by this prohibition.

According to the Department of Housing and Community Affairs and the Department of Licensing and Regulation, no fiscal implication to the state is anticipated.

The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house. If the bill does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, it would take effect September 1, 2017.

Local Government Impact

According to the Department of Housing and Community Affairs and the Department of Licensing and Regulation, no fiscal implication to local government is anticipated.

According to the Texas Municipal League, no fiscal implication to municipalities is anticipated.
