

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 9, 2017

TO: Honorable Kelly Hancock, Chair, Senate Committee on Business & Commerce

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1784 by Faircloth (Relating to the period during which an action alleging a violation of the open meetings law may be brought.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code to establish a statute of limitations for claims alleging violations of the open meetings statute and would provide that any claim must be brought within two years of the date the alleged violation occurred or should reasonably have been discovered. Based on the analysis of the Office of Court Administration and the Office of the Attorney General, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Association of Counties, the fiscal impact to counties to implement the provisions of the bill is not anticipated to be significant.
