

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 3, 2017

TO: Honorable Byron Cook, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2225 by Raney (Relating to the licensing of family residential centers by the Department of Family and Protective Services and the detention of certain juveniles.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Human Resources Code and the Family Code relating to the licensing of family residential centers by the Department of Family and Protective Services and the detention of certain juveniles. Based on information provided by the Department of Family and Protective Services, it is assumed that duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a two-thirds vote in both chambers, otherwise it would take effect September 1, 2017.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
