

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 1, 2017

TO: Honorable René Oliveira, Chair, House Committee on Business & Industry

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2343 by Workman (Relating to prerequisites to asserting certain claims arising from certain construction defects.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Civil Practice and Remedies Code relating to prerequisites to asserting certain claims arising from certain construction defects. Based on the analysis of the Office of Court Administration, Board of Architectural Examiners, Board of Professional Engineers, Board of Professional Land Surveying, and Board of Professional Geoscientists, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Municipal League, the fiscal impact to municipalities is not anticipated to be significant.
