

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 1, 2017

TO: Honorable Tan Parker, Chair, House Committee on Investments & Financial Services

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2580 by Holland (Relating to criminal history record information obtained by the savings and mortgage lending commissioner.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code relating to criminal history information obtained by the savings and mortgage lending commissioner. The bill would permit the Savings and Mortgage Commissioner to obtain criminal history information maintained by the Department of Public Safety for certain persons.

Based on information provided by the Department of Public Safety and Department of Savings and Mortgage Lending, it is assumed any additional work resulting from the passage of the bill could be reasonably absorbed within current resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
