

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 15, 2017

TO: Honorable Joe Moody, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3167 by Paddie (Relating to the program for improvement of collection of court costs, fees, and fines imposed in criminal cases.), As Introduced

The bill could have a negative but indeterminate fiscal impact on state revenue.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure requiring counties and municipalities with a population of 100,000 or more to participate in a program for improvement in collection of court costs, fees, and fines imposed in criminal cases.

According to the Office of Court Administration the bill could lower the collection of court costs, fees, and fines. A decline in collections would result in a reduction of state revenue but the amount of fiscal impact, if any, of the bill cannot be determined.

The bill would take effect immediately if the bill receives a two-thirds vote in each house; otherwise, the bill would take effect September 1, 2017.

Local Government Impact

The bill could have a negative fiscal impact on local revenue but the impact cannot be determined.

Source Agencies: 212 Office of Court Administration, Texas Judicial Council

LBB Staff: UP, KJo, GG, BM