

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 1, 2017

TO: Honorable Byron Cook, Chair, House Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3399 by Keough (Relating to a study by the Geo-Technology Research Institute on existing and potential programs to improve energy efficiency.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require the Geo-Technology Research Institute to conduct a study on existing and potential programs to improve energy efficiency in the state and submit a report to the Eighty-sixth Legislature. The University of Texas System, Texas A&M University System, and the University of Houston System indicated the provisions of the bill can be accomplished within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
