

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 14, 2017

TO: Honorable Dan Huberty, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3706 by Lucio III (Relating to certain alternative education programs designed to address workforce development needs for at risk students.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Education Code to allow existing private or public community-based dropout recovery programs to be offered at a campus, or through the use of an online program that leads to a high school diploma and prepares the student to enter the workforce.

Local Government Impact

School districts would be permitted, but not required, to use a private or public community-based dropout recovery education program that is offered through the use of an online program that leads to a high school diploma and prepares the student to enter the workforce. Costs associated with school district participation would be voluntary and nominal.
