

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 11, 2017

TO: Honorable Joan Huffman, Chair, Senate Committee on State Affairs

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3784 by Holland (Relating to persons approved by the Department of Public Safety to administer online the classroom instruction part of the handgun proficiency course.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.
--

The bill would amend multiple sections of the Government Code to authorize the administration of online courses for the classroom portion of handgun proficiency instruction. The bill would require the Department of Public Safety to distribute standards and course requirements to approved online course providers. It is assumed any costs associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be absorbed within existing resources.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2017.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
