

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 20, 2017

TO: Honorable Eddie Lucio, Jr., Chair, Senate Committee on Intergovernmental Relations

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB4344 by Huberty (Relating to the creation of Harris County Improvement District No. 27; providing authority to issue bonds; providing authority to impose assessments, fees, and taxes.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Special District Local Laws Code establishing the Harris County Improvement District No. 27. The district would have the authority to engage in economic development activities. The district would not have the authority to exercise the powers of eminent domain. The district would have the authority to issue bonds and other obligations, without an election. The district would have the authority to impose an operation and maintenance tax and contract tax. The district would have the authority to impose a sales and use tax. The district would have the authority to impose a hotel occupancy tax.

The bill would take effect immediately if the bill receives a two-thirds vote in each house; otherwise, the bill would take effect September 1, 2017.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
