

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 29, 2017

TO: Honorable Kelly Hancock, Chair, Senate Committee on Business & Commerce

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB988 by Zaffirini (Relating to the participation of a county judge in a meeting of a commissioners court conducted by videoconference call.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Local Government Code to establish that a county judge in a meeting conducted by videoconference is the presiding officer of a commissioners court only when the county judge is located at the physical space made available to the public for the meeting.

The Office of Court Administration indicates that no significant fiscal implication to the state is anticipated from the bill. The bill would take effect September 1, 2017.

Local Government Impact

According to the Texas Association of Counties, the fiscal impact from the bill would not be significant. The Office of Court Administration indicates that no significant fiscal implication to local courts is anticipated.
