"Water protectors of the world unite!" yelled Santibanez. It was the second double arroyo pipeline project of the year. Glover, a member of the Big Bend Defense Coalition, and Santibanez are both participating at the Two Rivers Camp, an encampment styled after the NO-DAPL brigade in North Dakota.

Author to discuss latest work tonight at library

PORT DAVIS - Everyone is invited to attend a "Bridge La Frontera" book event at the Jeff Davis County Library in Fort Davis this evening.

At 8 p.m. all friends of the library members and prospective members will welcome Robert Solter with a wine and cheese reception in the Hotel Lempira. Following this at 7 p.m. there will be a discussion led by the author and a book signing of his new memoir, Amado Muir: a Tale of Honesty and Deception describing a life of dual cultural identities. This free event has been made possible by Humanities Texas, Big Bend Coffee Roasters, Fort Davis State Bank and King Land and Water.
