The Honorable Bobby Lockhart retired as judge of the 102nd District Court in Texas on December 31, 2018, concluding eight years of outstanding service.

Judge Lockhart began his career as a police officer in Texarkana in 1977, and he went on to serve the department as a full-time patrol officer while also attending the University of Arkansas School of Law. After graduating with a juris doctor in 1987, he spent the next few years in private practice.

A respected lawyer, Judge Lockhart served as criminal district attorney for Bowie County from 1995 to 2011, becoming the longest-serving district attorney in the county's history.
