5 Subsection (c), the court shall make written findings regarding the 6 defendant's primary caretaker status.

7 (e) On a determination by the court that the defendant is 8 the primary caretaker of a child, the court may defer further 9 proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and place the 10 defendant on deferred adjudication community supervision in 11 accordance with this subchapter.

12 (f) This subsection applies only to a defendant described by 13 Subsection (b) who does not make a motion under Subsection (c). If

22 (g) A court placing a defendant on deferred adjudication 23 community supervision under this article may impose conditions of 24 deferred adjudication community supervision that emphasize the 12 (h) Notwithstanding Article 42A.104, a court that places a 13 defendant on deferred adjudication community supervision under 14 this article may not require as a condition of deferred

15 adjudication community supervision that the defendant submit to a 16 term of confinement, except that the court may order the defendant 17 to submit to a term of confinement if the court proceeds with an 18 adjudication of guilt for the offense for which the defendant was 19 placed on deferred adjudication community supervision under this 20 article.

21 SECTION 2. Article 42A.108(a), Code of Criminal Procedure,

13 defendant's primary caretaker status.

14 (d) As soon as practicable after receipt of a motion under 15 Subsection (c), the court shall make written findings regarding the 16 defendant's primary caretaker status. The court may not impose a 17 sentence of confinement, including confinement as a condition of 18 community supervision, without first making the written findings
19 required by this subsection.

23 court may order the defendant to submit to a term of confinement
24 following a determination that the defendant violated a condition
25 of community supervision or if the defendant's community
26 supervision is revoked under Article 42A.755.
