H.C.R. No. 173

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, For well over a century, Americans have set aside a 2 time to honor those members of its military forces who have died in 3 this country's service; and

4 WHEREAS, Originally called Decoration Day, this special 5 remembrance was first observed in 1868, when flowers were placed on 6 the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers; by the end of the 19th
7 century, Memorial Day ceremonies were being held on May 30
8 throughout the nation, and in 1971 Congress designated the last 9 Monday in May as Memorial Day; and

10 WHEREAS, Legions of Americans have stepped forward to serve 11 their country in times of conflict, and more than a million have 12 made the ultimate sacrifice; they "gave the last full measure of 13 devotion" on their native soil, in foreign lands, and on seas around 14 the world; today, we pause to remember with fresh sorrow all Texans
15 who have been slain in combat as members of the United States 16 military, and we acknowledge the profound loss sustained by the 17 families they have left behind; and

18 WHEREAS, In memorial ceremonies around the nation, Americans
19 reflect on their heritage and recognize the extreme sacrifices made 20 by those who serve in the armed forces of this country; now,
21 therefore, be it

22 RESOLVED by the 86th Texas Legislature, That the Senate and 23 House of Representatives of the State of Texas meet in a joint 24 memorial session in the Hall of the House of Representatives on

1 Saturday, May 25, 2019, at 10 a.m., for the Fallen Heroes Memorial 2 Service to pay tribute to all members of the U.S. military killed in 3 the line of duty and to honor especially the patriotic sons and 4 daughters of the Lone Star State who have given their lives; and, be 5 it further

6 RESOLVED, That the Honorable Greg Abbott, Governor of Texas, 7 all Texas state officials, and the family members of those killed in 8 the service of this country be, and hereby are, invited to attend
9 the joint memorial session; and, be it further

10 RESOLVED, That Memorial Day 2019 be commemorated and that the 11 contributions of all the men and women who have served our great 12 country be recognized.
