H.R. No. 116

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Proud residents of Lufkin and Angelina County are 2 gathering in Austin on February 20, 2019, to celebrate Lufkin and 3 Angelina County Day at the State Capitol; and

4 WHEREAS, Set among the pine and hardwood forests of East
5 Texas, this verdant area was first inhabited by the Caddo and 6 Atakapan people; the county is said to be named after a Hainai
7 Indian girl who aided Spanish missionaries in the early 1690s; and

8 WHEREAS, In 1801, a settler named Vicente Micheli purchased 9 five and a half leagues of land in the area from the chief of the 10 Bedias tribe; Anglo-American settlers began to arrive in 1820, and 11 the Mexican government issued land grants in the region in the 12 mid-1830s; after Texas independence, Angelina County was 13 established from part of Nacogdoches County in 1846, and Lufkin was 14 made county seat in 1892; and

15 WHEREAS, Following the arrival of the first railroad in 1882, 16 lumber became the foundation of Angelina County's economy; by the 17 turn of the 20th century, the nation's need for southern pine
18 supported more than 15 lumber companies in the county; today,
19 lumber, paper, and the manufacturing of oil-field equipment
20 continue to be mainstays of the county's economy; and

21 WHEREAS, Residents and visitors alike enjoy the region's fine
22 recreational opportunities; the Angelina National Forest is a 23 favorite for hikers and campers, while the Sam Rayburn Reservoir is 24 known for its boating, fishing, and waterskiing; the county's

1 forestlands are also a prime habitat for many species of birds,
2 drawing bird-watchers from around the state and nation; and

3 WHEREAS, As the largest town and the seat of government,
4 Lufkin serves as the center of operations for many of the businesses
5 in the county, particularly those relating to lumber and wood
6 products; that industry's development is chronicled at the Texas
7 Forestry Museum, and the city includes several other notable
8 attractions, including the Museum of East Texas, the Ellen Trout
9 Zoo and Park, and the Medford Collection of American Western Art, 10 which exhibits the work of notable contemporary artists; in 11 addition, Lufkin is home to the main campus of Angelina College; and

12 WHEREAS, Celebrating their rich history as they work to build 13 an even brighter future, the citizens of Lufkin and Angelina County
14 may take great pride in the important role their unique region
15 continues to play in the story of the Lone Star State; now,
16 therefore, be it

17 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 86th Texas
18 Legislature hereby recognize February 20, 2019, as Lufkin and 19 Angelina County Day at the State Capitol and extend to the visiting 20 delegation best wishes for a meaningful and memorable stay in 21 Austin.
