

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The House of Representatives is pleased to join
2 Texans across the state in celebrating Children's Advocacy Centers
3 of Texas Legislative Day at the State Capitol on January 29, 2019; 4 and

5 WHEREAS, Children's Advocacy Centers of Texas can trace its 6 origins back to 1989, when the state's first children's advocacy
7 center, The Bridge, was established in Amarillo; this pioneering
8 organization joined with 12 other local centers in 1994 to form
9 CACTX, which now has a membership of more than 70 children's 10 advocacy centers throughout the state; and

11 WHEREAS, CACTX provides a wide variety of assistance for 12 local centers, including training, technical support, and 13 evaluation services; and

14 WHEREAS, The CACTX member centers serve some 58,000 children
15 each year by working closely with multidisciplinary teams that 16 include law enforcement and the Department of Family and Protective 17 Services to coordinate joint investigations of child abuse and to 18 help child victims receive the services they need to heal; and

19 WHEREAS, Since its inception, Children's Advocacy Centers of 20 Texas has worked tirelessly to protect the state's most vulnerable 21 population, and it is indeed deserving of recognition for its 22 contributions to the well-being of countless young Texans and their 23 families; now, therefore, be it

24 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 86th Texas

H.R. No. 118

1 Legislature hereby recognize January 29, 2019, as Children's 2 Advocacy Centers of Texas Day at the State Capitol and commend the 3 organization and its member centers for their efforts in behalf of 4 child victims of abuse; and, be it further

5 RESOLVED, That Children's Advocacy Centers of Texas be 6 extended best wishes for a successful legislative day at the 7 Capitol and that an official copy of this resolution be prepared for 8 the organization as an expression of high regard by the Texas House
9 of Representatives.
