3 celebration of Frisco ISD Day at the State Capitol; and

4 WHEREAS, One of the fastest-growing school districts in the 5 country, Frisco ISD serves more than 60,000 students in 42
6 elementary schools, 17 middle schools, 10 high schools, and 3
7 special programs centers; each year, thousands of families choose
8 to call Frisco home due to the district's outstanding reputation 9 for academic excellence, innovative courses, and wealth of 10 extracurricular opportunities and experiences; and

11 WHEREAS, Despite the explosive growth the district has 12 experienced over the past three decades, Frisco ISD remains
13 committed to its mission to know every student by name and need,
14 providing small, personalized learning environments and a 15 student-to-teacher ratio lower than the national average; more than 16 7,000 faculty and staff members work tirelessly each day to prepare 17 the district's students for the challenges and opportunities that 18 lie ahead; and

19 WHEREAS, Today the Frisco ISD four-year graduation rate is an 20 impressive 98.6 percent, and the district has won a host of 21 accolades, including the Texas Honors Circle Award, the College
22 Board AP District Honor Roll, and the Platinum Leadership Circle
23 Award from the Texas Comptroller's Office; furthermore, the 24 district has contributed significantly to the exceptional quality
