1           WHEREAS, The Professional Golfers' Association of America is 2 moving its headquarters to Frisco; and

3           WHEREAS, The result of a groundbreaking public-private 4 agreement, the new 100,000-square-foot headquarters will anchor a 5 600-acre, mixed-use development that is expected to bring more than 6 $2.5 billion into the region's economy over the next 20 years; in 7 addition to the PGA and the City of Frisco, other stakeholders who 8 contributed to the agreement include the city's economic and 9 community development corporations, the board of the Frisco
10 Independent School District, and the Omni Stillwater Woods 11 partnership; and

12           WHEREAS, The complex will be home to two championship golf 13 courses, a short course, and practice areas totaling 45 holes, as 14 well as a clubhouse; scheduled to open in 2022, the courses will 15 host several PGA championship tournaments, including the 16 KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship in 2023; moreover, the complex
17 will include a 500-room Omni Hotel resort, a 127,000-square-foot 18 conference center, a state-of-the-art retail village, parks and 19 open space, and several miles of walking trails; and

20           WHEREAS, Rated by Money magazine in 2018 as the "Best Place to 21 Live" in the nation, Frisco is thriving, and this new addition to 22 the city promises to make significant contributions to the 23 community; now, therefore, be it

24           RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 86th Texas

H.R. No. 717

1 Legislature hereby congratulate Frisco for becoming the new
