H.R. No. 727

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The University of Texas at Austin is an institution
2 of exceptional standing in the Lone Star State, engendering a
3 strong sense of pride among its alumni that stays with them long 4 after they graduate; and

5 WHEREAS, While UT alumni have distinguished themselves in 6 myriad fields of endeavor, they forever remain Longhorns who carry 7 with them special memories of their time at UT and draw upon the 8 knowledge, skills, and experiences they acquired in their years of 9 study; and

10 WHEREAS, In the time that has passed since the 85th Texas
11 Legislative Session, we have bidden farewell to a number of UT 12 alumni, and it is fitting that we pause to remember their lives and 13 achievements; and

14 WHEREAS, Gone but never to be forgotten, these men and women 15 were cherished family members, and many became role models in their 16 professions and leaders in their communities; often loyally,
17 vocally, and even boisterously supportive of their alma mater
18 throughout their lives, some former Longhorns took on active roles 19 in alumni organizations and committees, where they shared their 20 time and talents to help guide their beloved university toward a 21 still brighter future; and

22 WHEREAS, Regardless of where they ventured to make their mark
23 on the world, these UT graduates were connected by the common thread 24 of having attended one of the best universities in the nation, and
