1 WHEREAS, The lifePATH program at Lone Star College is helping 2 to prepare many young adults for success in their professional and 3 personal endeavors; and

4 WHEREAS, Lone Star College's lifePATH is a four-year
5 comprehensive model developed for college students who face
6 challenges with executive functioning; these students often 7 struggle with paying attention, organizing and planning, 8 initiating tasks and keeping focus, regulating emotions, and 9 self-monitoring, and the program helps participants identify their 10 particular obstacles, develop tactics to overcome them, and 11 practice implementing new strategies; and

12 WHEREAS, Through lifePATH, students learn the social and 13 skill expectations needed in business, academics, and personal 14 relationships, while also earning college credit, participating in 15 campus and community internships, or receiving certifications in 16 foundational occupational studies and business operations; and

17 WHEREAS, The lifePATH program enables students to define 18 their unique pathways to rewarding careers through research,
19 self-reflection, and goal-setting, and it provides an exceptional 20 college experience that will help participants build the confidence 21 and knowledge necessary to fulfill their dreams; now, therefore, be
