

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, November 26, 2020, marks the annual celebration of 2 Thanksgiving, an occasion when Americans gather among loved ones
3 and recount the year's bounties and blessings; and

4 WHEREAS, Thanksgiving is among our oldest and most cherished 5 traditions, a holiday whose history intertwines closely with the 6 narrative of our nation and whose spirit of fellowship and goodwill 7 has endured through all times of triumph and uncertainty; and

8 WHEREAS, Its origins can be traced nearly four centuries ago
9 to the year 1620, when the Pilgrims made landfall on Plymouth Rock;
10 finding themselves inadequately prepared for the harsh New England
11 winter, they took refuge in prayer and were at last assisted by a 12 tribe of Native Americans, whose knowledge of the land helped them
13 to reap a plentiful harvest; the grateful settlers declared a 14 three-day feast to honor the kindness of their newfound friends and 15 to acknowledge the grace of God in seeing them through their time of 16 hardship; and

17 WHEREAS, Thanksgiving was first observed in the fledgling 18 United States in 1789, one year after the adoption of the 19 Constitution; during the inaugural session of Congress, a 20 resolution was put forth calling on President George Washington to 21 enact "a day of public thanksgiving" to God for allowing the 22 American people to establish a peaceful rule of government;
23 President Washington agreed and, in his first proclamation to the 24 nation, invited Americans to reflect on the gifts of tranquility,

1 unity, and prosperity bestowed on them; and

2 WHEREAS, It was decades later, when the fate of the union was 3 imperiled during the dark days of the Civil War, that President
4 Abraham Lincoln delivered his famous Thanksgiving Day proclamation
5 calling for "the Almighty hand" to heal and restore the nation;
6 since that time, a presidential Thanksgiving proclamation has been 7 issued by each of his successors; and

8 WHEREAS, On this most American of holidays, individuals from 9 all walks of life cast aside troubles and disagreements to treasure
10 the comforts of hearth and kin; mindful of the freedom and security 11 that we continue to enjoy, Americans honor the service and 12 sacrifice of members of our armed forces and all those at home who 13 confront danger to ensure the safety of their communities; we 14 extend thanks to the many people who enrich our lives in ways great 15 and small, and we strive to share our abundance with fellow citizens 16 in need; and

17 WHEREAS, Signifying the bonds of faith, friendship, and 18 family from which we have always drawn our deepest strength, 19 Thanksgiving is redolent of the brighter dawn that has always 20 awaited us, and it is a great pleasure to join with our countrymen
21 and countrywomen to reflect on this historic and joyous occasion;
22 now, therefore, be it

23 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 86th Texas
24 Legislature hereby commemorate Thanksgiving 2020.
