S.B. No. 220

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to a feasibility study and report by the Texas Division of Emergency Management regarding the use of United States Postal Service employees, resources, and assets during a declared disaster.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Subchapter C, Chapter 418, Government Code, is amended by adding Section 418.054 to read as follows:

Sec. 418.054. STUDY REGARDING AGREEMENT WITH UNITED STATES
POSTAL SERVICE DURING STATE OF DISASTER. (a) The division shall conduct a study to examine the feasibility of establishing an agreement with the United States Postal Service regarding the use of employees, resources, and assets within the postal service during a state of disaster to:

(1) identify residential or commercial structures
that have been damaged;

(2) identify persons who reside in a damaged area and the medical or physical needs of those persons;

(3) help assess the damage to neighborhoods or communities; and

(4) assist in any other activity that the division determines to be necessary in responding to the disaster.

(b) Not later than November 1, 2021, the division shall:

(1) complete the study;

1 (2) report the results of the study to the lieutenant
2 governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the 3 standing committees of the house and the senate with jurisdiction
4 over public safety matters; and

5 (3) post the results of the study on the division's
6 Internet website.

7 (c) This section expires December 31, 2023.

8 SECTION 2. This Act takes effect September 1, 2019.
