11 Sec. 433A.0004. DETERMINATION OF MISLEADING LABELING OR 12 ADVERTISING. If a food is alleged to be misbranded because the 13 labeling or advertising is misleading, the department in 14 determining whether the labeling or advertising is misleading shall 15 consider, among other characteristics:

16 (1) a representation made or suggested by a statement,
17 word, design, device, sound, or any combination of these; and

19 suggests the food is:

4 or misbranded under this chapter with the intent to deliver or 5 introduce the food into commerce for payment.

6 Sec. 433A.0006. INJUNCTION. (a) The department, or 7 attorney general on the department's request, may petition a
8 district court for a temporary restraining order to restrain a 9 continuing violation of this chapter or a threat of a continuing 10 violation of this chapter if the department finds that:

11 (1) a person has violated, is violating, or is 12 threatening to violate this chapter; and

13 (2) the violation or threatened violation creates an 14 immediate threat to public health and safety.

15 (b) A district court, on petition of the department or 16 attorney general, and on a finding by the court that a person is 17 violating or threatening to violate this chapter, shall grant any 18 injunctive relief warranted by the facts.

19 (c) Venue for a suit brought under this section is in the 20 county in which the violation or threat of violation is alleged to 21 have occurred or in Travis County.

22 (d) The department and the attorney general may each recover
23 reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining injunctive relief under 24 this section, including investigative costs, court costs,
25 reasonable attorney's fees, witness fees, and deposition expenses.

26 The expenses recovered by the department may be used by the 27 department for the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

1 The expenses recovered by the attorney general may be used by the 2 attorney general.

3 Sec. 433A.0007. DETAINED, EMBARGOED, OR REMOVED FOOD. (a)
4 The department shall affix to a food subject to this chapter a tag
5 or other appropriate marking that gives notice that the food is, or 6 is suspected of being, adulterated or misbranded under this chapter
7 and that the food has been detained or embargoed if the department
8 finds or has probable cause to believe that the food:

9 (1) is adulterated under this chapter;

10 (2) is misbranded in a manner that renders the food
11 dangerous or fraudulent under this chapter; or

12 (3) violates Section 433A.0005.

13 (b) The tag or marking on a detained or embargoed food must 14 warn persons not to use the food, remove the food from the premises, 15 or dispose of the food by sale or otherwise until the department or 16 a court grants permission for the use, removal, or disposal of the 17 food.

18 (c) A person may not use a detained or embargoed food, 19 remove a detained or embargoed food from the premises, or dispose of 20 a detained or embargoed food by sale or otherwise without 21 permission of the department or a court. The department may allow 22 perishable foods to be moved to a place suitable for storage.

23 (d) The department shall remove the tag or other marking 24 from an embargoed or detained food if the department finds that the 25 food is not adulterated or misbranded under this chapter.

26 (e) If the claimant of the detained or embargoed food or the 27 claimant's agent fails or refuses to transfer the food to a secure

1 place after the tag or other appropriate marking has been affixed as 2 provided by this section, the department may order the food
3 transferred to one or more secure storage areas to prevent the 4 unauthorized use, removal, or disposal of the food.

5 Sec. 433A.0008. CORRECTION OF VIOLATION. (a) A court may 6 order the delivery of a sampled food or a detained or embargoed food 7 that is adulterated or misbranded under this chapter to the 8 claimant of the food for labeling or processing under the 9 supervision of the department if:

10 (1) the court orders the delivery in a suit
11 challenging the detention or embargo;

12 (2) the costs, fees, and expenses of the suit have been 13 paid;

14 (3) the adulteration or misbranding can be corrected
15 by proper labeling or processing; and

16 (4) a good and sufficient bond, conditioned on the 17 correction of the adulteration or misbranding by proper labeling or 18 processing, has been executed.

19 (b) The claimant shall pay the costs of the supervision
20 under this section.

21 (c) The court shall order the food returned to the claimant 22 and the bond discharged on the department's representation to the 23 court that the food no longer violates this chapter and that the 24 expenses of the supervision are paid.

25 SECTION 2. As soon as practicable after the effective date
26 of this Act, the executive commissioner of the Health and Human 27 Services Commission shall adopt rules as necessary to implement
