TO: Honorable Joan Huffman, Chair, Senate Committee on State Affairs

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure to require any signed orders issued by a magistrate include, with the magistrate's signature, the magistrate's name in legible handwriting, typewritten form, or stamp print. Based on the analysis of the Office of Court Administration, it is assumed that duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished using existing resources.

This analysis assumes the provisions of the bill would not result in a significant impact on state correctional populations or on the demand for state correctional resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
