Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 16, 2019

TO: Honorable Chris Turner, Chair, House Committee on Higher Education

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB132 by González, Mary (Relating to a limitation on the amount of tuition charged by public institutions of higher education.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill relates to limitations on the amount of tuition charged by public institutions of higher education. The bill would limit designated tuition increases at all public institutions of higher education in the state, including general academic institutions, health related institutions, technical colleges, public state colleges, and community colleges, beginning in the 2020-21 academic year (fiscal year 2021) to the total amount of tuition charged to a similarly situated student for the 2019-20 academic year (fiscal year 2020).

Designated tuition and fees within Subchapter E of the Texas Education Code, Chapter 54, except for laboratory fees, student teaching fees, and special course fees, are classified as institutional funds; therefore, there would be no impact to the State. Laboratory fees, student teaching fees, and special course fees under Subchapter E of the Texas Education Code, Chapter 54, are accounted for as educational and general income, or statutory tuition, in the General Appropriations Act. It is assumed that the provisions of the bill would not have a significant effect on this income.

Based on information provided by institutions of higher education, the bill would result in a loss in tuition revenue, which could reach a significant amount.

Administrative duties associated with the bill would be implemented within current resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
