Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

February 26, 2019

TO: Honorable Chris Turner, Chair, House Committee on Higher Education

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director    Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB258 by Blanco (Relating to the abolition of student loan default or breach of a student loan repayment or scholarship contract as a ground for nonrenewal or other disciplinary action in relation to a professional or occupational license.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

It is assumed that the provisions of the bill relating to the abolition of student loan default or breach of a student loan repayment or scholarship contract as a ground for non-renewal or other disciplinary action in relation to certain professional or occupational licenses would not result in a significant cost or revenue impact.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
