FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 15, 2019

TO: Honorable Poncho Nevárez, Chair, House Committee on Homeland Security & Public Safety

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB418 by VanDeaver (Relating to the availability of personal information of a current or former federal prosecutor.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code to add current and former United States attorneys and assistant United States attorneys to the list of public employees for whom rights of access to information are restricted. Based on the analysis of the Office of Court Administration, the Office of the Attorney General, and the Department of Criminal Justice, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished using existing resources.

The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, or September 1, 2019.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
