IN RE: HB680 by Deshotel (Relating to the evaluation of and improvements to the quality of the Texas Workforce Commission's subsidized child care program.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Labor Code relating to the evaluation of and improvements to the quality of the Texas Workforce Commission's (TWC) subsidized child care program.

The bill would require TWC to evaluate additional information regarding the subsidized child care program. TWC anticipates existing staff and resources would be used to update the system to collect the additional data required under the provisions of the bill.

Based on information provided by TWC, this analysis assumes the duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

Based on the analysis of the Texas Education Agency, this analysis assumes the duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2019.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
