Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 12, 2019

TO: Honorable Chris Turner, Chair, House Committee on Higher Education

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB766 by Huberty (Relating to exemptions for disabled peace officers and fire fighters from payment of tuition and fees at public institutions of higher education.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill amends statute as it relates to tuition and fee exemptions for disabled peace officers at public institutions of higher education by making the exemption mandatory instead of permissive. The bill would also allow disabled fire fighters to participate in the exemption. Based on information provided by the Higher Education Coordinating Board, there were less than 10 recipients under the current exemption for disabled peace officers. Therefore, it is estimated that the impact to institutions of higher education in terms of foregone tuition, based on an expansion of the exemption, would not be significant.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
