

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 31, 2019

TO: Honorable Tom Craddick, Chair, House Committee on Land & Resource Management

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1367 by Harris (Relating to the disposition of real property intended for high-speed rail projects.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.
--

The bill would amend the Transportation Code to impose certain restrictions on the conveyance of property acquired by a private entity for the purpose of a high-speed rail project and provides certain rights for the previous owner of these properties.

Local Government Impact

According to the Department of Transportation, no fiscal impact to local governments is anticipated.

According to the Texas Association of Counties, no fiscal impact to counties is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 601 Department of Transportation

LBB Staff: WP, SZ, SD, GP