

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 29, 2019

TO: Honorable Charlie Geren, Chair, House Committee on House Administration

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2306 by Rosenthal (Relating to a study regarding the public health considerations of transportation planning.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would establish a joint interim committee, composed of members of the Senate and House of Representatives, on public health considerations of transportation planning to study methods the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) uses to integrate public health considerations into highway project planning and general TxDOT policy. The bill would require the joint interim committee to report the committee's findings and recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature no later than January 1, 2021. The committee would be abolished and the bill would expire on January 12, 2021.

It is assumed any costs or duties associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be absorbed within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
