

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 86TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 22, 2019

TO: Honorable Dan Huberty, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John McGeady, Assistant Director Sarah Keyton, Assistant Director
Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2981 by Sanford (Relating to including fetal development instruction as part of the health curriculum used in public schools in certain grade levels.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

It is assumed that the provisions of the bill relating to including fetal development instruction as part of the health curriculum used in public schools in certain grade levels could be absorbed using existing resources.

Local Government Impact

The Texas Education Agency (TEA) assumes there would be costs to school districts to train teachers and develop or identify instructional materials related to the human reproductive process, pregnancy, and infertility.
